Key Academic Projects:

➤ Major Project(BE):

Title: Location aided service mechanism without using global positioning system (GPS).

Project Description: The goal of location based service is to assign normal user the best effective services in normal manner within specified location. Most of LBS use a smart-phone's GPS technology to track people's location, if that person has opted-in to allow the service to do that, but those systems mostly assume complete access to underlying geo-data but not the approximate data. Our design portal provides an automatic approach to predict a user with relevant experience of the upcoming services and advertisements and offers.

Tools & Technologies: .Net MVC Framework, Microsoft SQL Server

➤ Minor Project(TE):

Title: Rapid Bus Ticket Management System using NO-SQL Database as backend

Project Description: We Design & Implement a small Application using Java as a Front- end & MongoDB database as a back-end. Our design web based application is responsible for different database navigation operations (add, delete, edit etc.) using JDBC

Tools & Technologies: Net Beans IDE, Java, MongoDB
